📁 PROJECTS

E - Commerce website for automobile parts

This project focuses on developing a secure e-commerce website for selling automobile parts like tires, batteries, and engine components. Key features include intelligent search, persistent shopping carts, secure payment integration, and user accounts for order tracking. The admin panel enables inventory management, order processing, and marketing, with scalability through supplier and logistics integrations.

Bus pass management system

The Bus Pass Management System simplifies the issuance and renewal of bus passes for passengers. Users can apply, renew, and manage passes online, with secure payment integration and a unique pass ID for verification. The admin panel manages routes, fare structures, and passenger records efficiently.

🏠 ORGANIZATIONS

Department president

The Department President leads and represents the academic department, managing student activities and fostering collaboration. They serve as a liaison between students, faculty, and administration. The president organizes events, addresses concerns, and ensures the department runs smoothly.

National cyber security conference

Volunteers for the National Cybersecurity Conference assist with event logistics, registrations, and guiding attendees. They support speakers, ensure smooth session transitions, and help with networking activities. Their role ensures the conference runs efficiently and provides a positive experience for all participants.
